STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER
 THE ALL-
 IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing
 Mrs. Pinkham
 you are considering your private life—a woman—
 a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years
 under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women
 free of charge.
 Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.
 Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; it has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is so foolish if she does not take advantage of this opportunity of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.
 When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it,
 "I do not believe it will help me."

Attacks United States.
 The Kotheich Volks Zeitung, of Berlin, the organ of the clerical centre party, the greatest political power in Germany and the strongest party numerically in the Reichstag, recently contained an article denouncing what it calls the interference of America in Mexico. If the United States proclaims the Monroe doctrine in the western hemisphere, it says, Europe must proclaim a similar doctrine in the eastern hemisphere.
 America's demand for the open door in Morocco is hypocritical, as America has suppressed the open door in the Philippines, Porto Rico and Panama. The fact that the United States is supporting Germany in Morocco is cutwinded by the danger of American interference in European affairs. The European powers ought to combine to exclude America from affairs which are purely European, but, instead of doing so, the powers compete with one another in paying homage to the United States.

The End of The World of troubles that robbed F. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes:
 "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters.
 They have cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Prepare, Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons

Vented Spite on Longworth.
 One of the Pennsylvania Congres-men is still very angry against President Roosevelt because of the removal of William S. Leib from the Sub-Treasury at Philadelphia. A few days ago there was a banquet at the Arlington, in Washington, at which this Congressman and Nicholas Longworth were among the guests. The Congressman imbibed freely, and when he was called on to speak he arose with a determination to attack the wrong of Leib. In the middle of the first sentence of his speech, however, he spied Longworth sitting across the table. The result was that his speech began like this: "In these days of strenuous administration and specu-lar civil service reform (an awkward pause followed by a nod in the direction of Longworth) I don't think much of your father-in-law."

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once.
 Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm relieves the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas common "remedies" made with mercury merely drive them out and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real cure, not a deceiver. At drug stores, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren street, New York.

 It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in
